DEDICATION

to the progress and perfection of the student."

We, the members of the graduating Class of Mount Saint Mary Academy, proudly dedicate the 1965 Mercycrest to you, Sister Mary Dionysia.

You began your position as principal the same year we became part of the Mount as freshmen. Even though you remained at the Mount for only three years, you have helped us develop spiritually, intellectually and socially. Constantly aware of our needs, you gave us the means by which we could develop into true Christian women.

We ask God to reward you for all your kindness to us and we offer the dedication of our book as a little token of gratitude.

Leading Upward

His Excellency, the Most Reverend James Louis Connolly, D.D.D. Sch., Bishop of the Diocese of Fall River, has attended each session of the Ecumenical Council.

His Excellency, the Most Reverend James Joseph Gerard, D.D., as Auxiliary Bishop has done much to further the Liturgical participation of the Laity in the Mass.

Reverend Patrick O'Neill as Superintendent of schools sees that courses are offered which are adapted to the progress of the Church and the world.

Reverend Joseph Delany as Assistant Superintendent aids Father O'Neill in keeping the courses of study up-to-date.

Reverend Paul McCarrick is Spiritual Director of the Mount and instructs the girls in Religion. He always shows an interest in all student activities.

and Outward

Mother Mary Helena, R.S.M., is Mother Provincial of the Sisters of Mercy. Besides teaching, the Sisters of Mercy do nursing, care for orphans and work in foreign missions.

Progress . . .

Mother Mary Alban, R.S.M., Assistant Mother Provincial, plans the study program to prepare the Sisters to accomplish their works of mercy according to the present-day wishes of the Church.

in the Mercy Apostolate

Sister Mary Charlotte, R.S.M., is Superior of Mount Saint Mary Convent and shows a keen interest in the progress of the Academy.

Sister Mary Consilii, R.S.M., Principal of Mount Saint Mary Academy, is always ready to pause in her work to help each student.

Sister Mary Julian, Moderator of Sports, busies herself in preparing her classes. Sister teaches Junior Religion, Shorthand II, Typing I and II, Office Practice and Bookkeeping.

Admiring the industrious religious from South America is one of Sister Mary Austina's pleasures. Besides English I and II, Sister teaches Religion I and II, and is Moderator of the Mercian.

Miss Morin, a graduate of the Mount, enjoys a few moments of leisure during her busy day. Miss Morin teaches Biology and Chemistry.

Daily reading is a must in Sister Mary Carmelita's Shorthand Class. In addition to Shorthand I, Sister teaches American History, English IV and Personal Typing, and she is Moderator of the Debate Club.

Sister Mary Adele, Moderator of the French Club, surrounded by Nancy Ferris, Joyce Greenwood and Elaine Medeiros, enjoys teaching French culture. Sister teaches French I, II, and III.

Sister Mary Mercy, Moderator of the Dramatic Club, enjoys a remark made by one of her American History students. Besides teaching American History to Juniors and Seniors, Sister teaches English IV.

Sister Marie Lorraine watches Susan Arruda complete her Algebra problem. Sister teaches General Math, Algebra I and Music and she is Moderator of the Glee Club.

Onward to Broader Horizons

Sister Mary Rose explains a point in Latin to Elizabeth Bergeron. Sister's schedule includes German 1, as well as Latin I, II, III, IV, and she is Moderator of the Latin Club.

Leading to Spiritual and Scholastic Goals

Sister Mary Fidelis teaches English, Latin and Geometry. Here Sister demonstrates the use of an overhead projector, one of eleven, granted to the Mount, in a contest sponsored by the 3-M Company.

Sister Mary Denisita reviews the new Religion program. In addition to this course on the Freshman, Sophomore, and Junior levels, Sister teaches Spanish II and III and is Moderator of the Spanish Club.

Sister Mary Phyllis teaches French I and II, Religion III and Geometry. Sister is Moderator of the Honor Society and the Student Government.

Mr. John Ursprung from the William Cooke Publishing Company discusses the layout of this year's Mercycrest with Sister Mary Benita, Mercycrest Adviser. Sister teaches English II and IV, Math IV and Religion III.

Sister Mary Mercy, Librarian, and Miss Mildred Sullivan, her assistant, discuss one of the new books. The librarians work hard to make research papers and reading more enjoyable for all.

Sister Mary Ludivine, Sister Mary Mercy, Sister Mary Carmelita and Mrs. Raymond Carvalho teach American History to Juniors and Seniors. Here they discuss the many advantages of visual aids.

Mrs. McConnell enjoys a few moments of relaxation after full periods of teaching Advanced Math and Senior Math. Also on her schedule are three periods of Algebra II.

Christine Souza prepares a slide for Biology Lab. Under the direction of Sister Mary Chabanel the Biology students learn much about the wonders of nature. Sister also teaches Religion II, Physics and General Science.

Mr. Thomas Tavares pauses for a few moments to admire his students' work. In addition to Art on all levels Mr. Tavares teaches General Science.

Progressing with Church and World

Sister Marie and Mrs. Muriel Medeiros share Sister Mary Consilio's joy as Sister announces the final returns of the McAuley Guild for the Mount Scholarship Fund.

Sister Mary Albertus explains an experiment to Nancy McKnight and Diane Alaire. Sister teaches Chemistry, Biology, Religion IV, and is Senior Sodality Moderator.

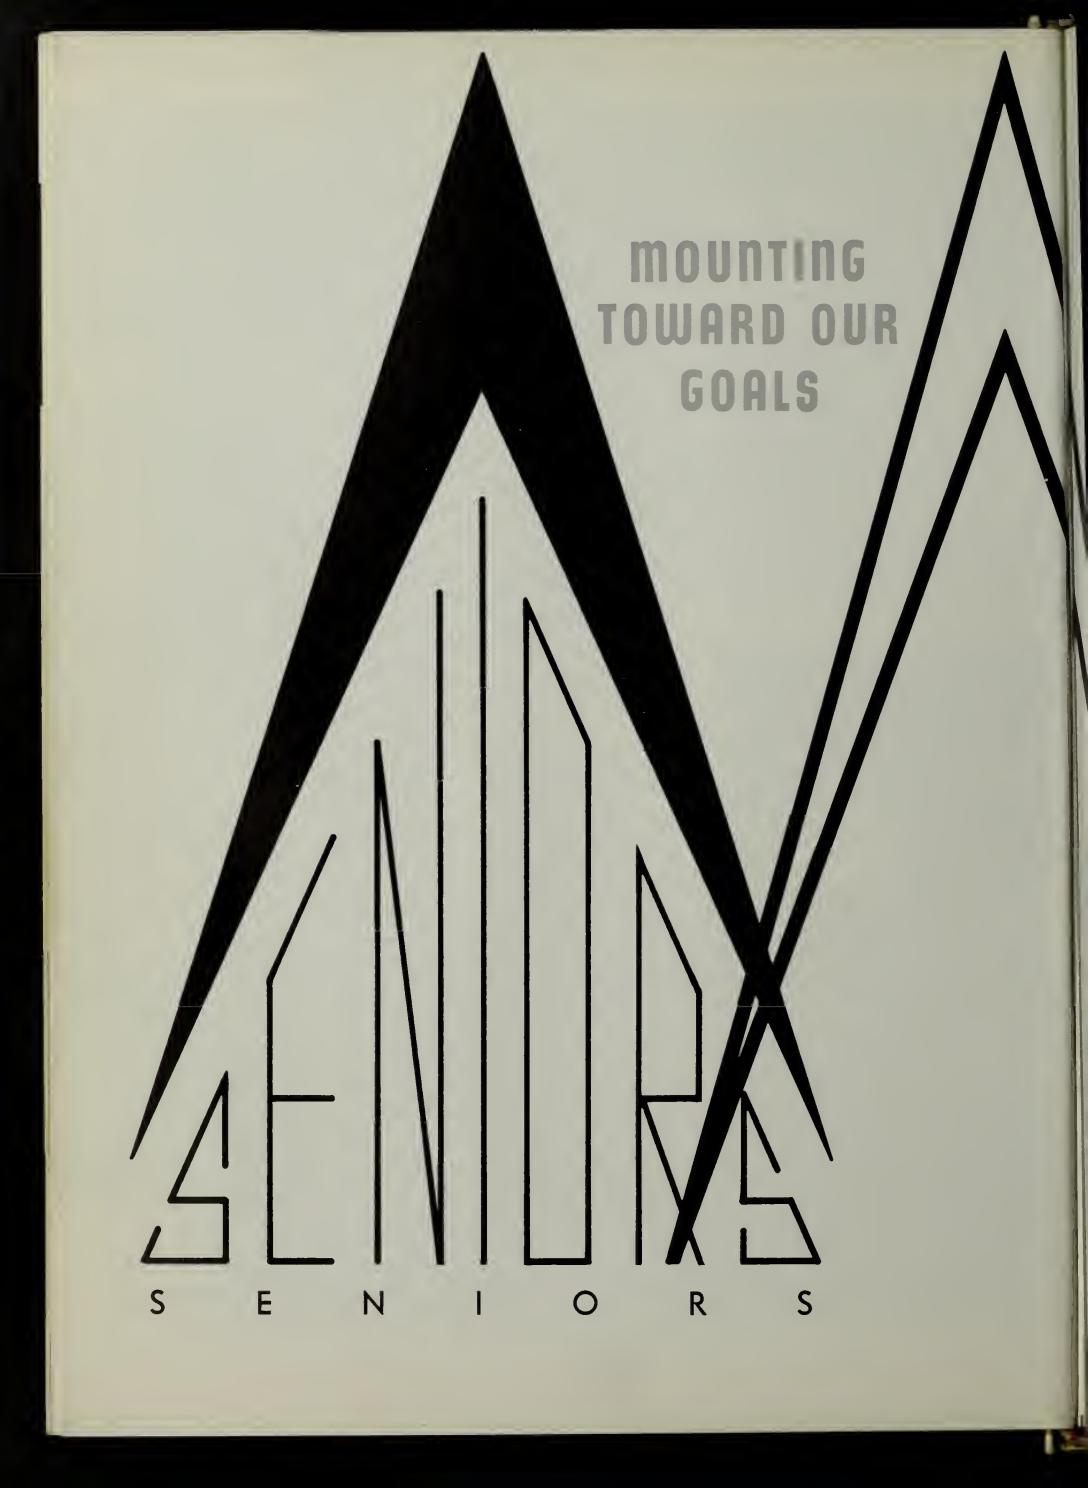

Sister Mary Ludivine's schedule includes Spanish I, American History and Religion IV. Sister is also Moderator of the Junior Sodality.

Mr. Arthur Paquette, Director of the Mount Orchestra, is here playing for the Junior Prom.

One of the new teachers at the Mount is Mrs. Schongar. She teaches all of the Junior English classes and one Senior English.

Sonja's father is one of our yearbook photographers and she is proud of his work. This year's Mercycrest will mean even more to her since she is now a Mount student.

At the Junior Prom, Ann Martel, Marilyn Pendrake and their escorts take time out for refreshments served by "French Maids", Joyce Oliveira, Mary Ann Souza, Nancy Sayward and Maureen Turgeon.

The wonders and thrills of a freshman are unknown until they are experienced. A group of freshmen industriously toil through the present tense endings of Latin I.

C U R R I C U L U M

An explanation on the importance and role of the Holy Spirit in the Church today, captivates the attention of Sister Mary Denisita's Religion III class. By means of daily lectures, the students become aware of the importance of God in their lives as teenagers as well as future Christian adults.

In keeping with the modern approach in teaching Religion, Freshmen and Sophomore Religion teachers have begun this method. There has been a great emphasis placed on the liturgy. A day was given to it when four priests conducted the classes and discussions so that all students might have a better understanding of the changes in the liturgy.

RELIGION

The Gothic structure, beautiful hues of the stained-glass windows and carving of the wood . . . all contribute in making the Mount chapel a true haven of peace and beauty.

Receiving Our Lord's Body on the First Friday of each month is a spiritual custom at the Mount. This Heavenly Banquet brings many blessings to the Mount.

During the months of October and May, Our Lady is honored at the Mount. Through illustrations on the bulletin boards, a Mount girl is reminded of the importance of the rosary.

No school year at the Mount would be complete without the annual retreat. In union with the students, Father Deslisle, retreat master, offers daily the sacrifice of the Mass.

Language would be of no value unless one knew how to properly use it. Therefore, no English course would be complete unless one learned the proper use of grammar for composition work.

Contemporary progress may be seen in the program of the English Department just as in other departments of the school. In keeping with the wishes of the National Council of Teachers of English, modern English grammar and the linguistic study of literature have been introduced.

The Understanding the Novel program is an important part of the Mount Literature. Geraldine Raposa, one of Sister Mary Benita's Senior English students, returns Pride and Prejudice by Jane Austen and decides which of the novels she would like to read next.

Mrs. Schongar's comments produce lively reactions in her Senior English class. The emphasis placed on composition work in the Senior year gives the girls an opportunity to express their thoughts logically and practice advanced writing techniques.

These Sophomores, our present Juniors, were in the class which pioneered in the use of Modern Grammar. This class, instructed by Sister Mary Benita, was one of the first in the area to adopt the modern approach.

ENGLISH

Sister Mary Benita and Sister Mary Austin discuss one of Shakespeare's plays before the appropriate setting of the Folger Shakespeare Library display.

Susan Jenkinson and Kathleen Fitzgerald demonstrate the practical applications of Modern Grammar. Linguists have found that Latin Grammar does not fit our language, so they have patterned a grammar to fit the needs of American English.

LANGUAGES

A few moments to glance through the magazine Paris Match are enjoyed by Sister Mary Adele and Sister Mary Phyllis. Both teachers work diligently teaching students French, its culture and grammar.

The French III course includes not only a basic study of the language and its structure but also an understanding of the country, the people and their culture.

The Mount curriculum offers German, Spanish, French and Latin. In keeping with the modern requirements for the study of languages, the Mount uses the linguistic approach in teaching modern languages. Sister Mary Adele, who teaches French, spent the summer in France making a detailed study of teaching French according to Applied Linguistics.

Sister Mary Rose and her Latin III class admire a statue of Saint Joan of Arc whose picture is in the Latin text. Joan spoke French, but the students are aware that French comes from Latin.

Projects are an important part of the French II course in order for students to acquire a better understanding of French. This group of Juniors enjoy the comments passed by two artistic students about their posters.

Sister Mary Adele points out places of interest that have been mentioned in French literature to Virginia Bailey, and Nancy Jackson, members of the French III class.

The science laboratories at the Mount are equipped to provide all students with a basic foundation in the various fields of modern science. Sister Mary Chabanel looks on as several members of the Sophomore class study specimens under the microscope to further their knowledge in Biology.

The Science Department offers to its students the use of some of the most modern equipment. Faculty and students work together solving and discovering the wonders of this field. Our science teachers are Sister Mary Alber-tus, Sister Mary Chabanel, Miss Morin and Mr. Tavares.

SCIENCE

During their weekly lab period, Chemistry students are aided in setting up the equipment for various experiments by Senior assistants.

Sister Mary Albertus and Sister Mary Chabanel discuss the procedure for a chemistry experiment.

Mount Math teachers use the modern approach. In order to meet the interests, needs and ability, of all students the Math Department has set up a program patterned on the new course of study which has been compiled by the Math Committee of the Diocese. Mrs. McConnell represents the Mount at present on this committee.

After leaving the Mount, Ruth Drury plans to further her education in the field of Mathematics. Here Ruth is hard at work solving problems in her Senior Math book.

Sister Mary Phyllis demonstrates the solution of a Geometry problem to her Sophomore class. Using the overhead projector saves time by eliminating unnecessary re-copying of material.

MATH

Mrs. McConnell is always ready to help students who have difficulty with problems. She tries to convince Teresa Carriero and Eileen Murphy that Algebra II is not as difficult as they think.

Sister Mary Ferrer, R.S.M., who has her Ph.D. in Math from Notre Dame, gave an excellent talk on the modern approach to Mathematics at an assembly of parents and students at the Mount.

Business students Jeanne Thibault, Rose Marie Cowan, Elaine Carleton, Margaret Bashara, and Sandra Gifford, put their theory into practice in Mrs. Medeiros' office. Office Practice is an important feature of the business curriculum. Accuracy and sense of responsibility are very necessary goals for those seeking a business career.

BUSINESS

Our two Spanish Speaking students, Sister Clara Maria and Sister Maria Beatriz joined with the Bookkeeping class in trying to make  $A = L + P$ . Let us see how successful they will be.

Typing is an elective course for the non-business student. Many Juniors and Seniors take advantage of the modern equipment and beneficial program.

Mount is well known for its excellent Business Department. Courses, taught by Sister Carmelita and Sister Mary Julian, are offered to Juniors and Seniors who wish to prepare for business careers. The curriculum includes: Stenography I and II, Typing I and II, Personal Typing, Book-keeping and Office Practice.

Junior American History students, taught by Sister Mary Ludivine, give a quick response to one of Sister's questions. American History is a required subject for graduation. It may be taken in either the Senior or Junior year at the Mount.

History plays a vital part in our educational development. Through this study we become aware of the great leaders and adventurers of the past. The History curriculum offers a variety of courses — American History, World History and Government. For extra cultural development students are encouraged to join the History Club or the Debate Club.

Mrs. Carvalho helps Jacqueline Martin to settle a problem which has arisen in her American History class. This year Mrs. Carvalho also teaches a class in government affairs.

HISTORY

A group of Seniors from Sister Mary Mercy's History Class enjoy a humorous event in the history of their country.

Some of the more fortunate Juniors are able to fit American History into their busy class schedules. These interested students try to find an answer to Mrs. Carvalho's question.

While studying American History, students often refer to maps to get a clearer understanding of their work. Anne Purdy and Carolyn Boff observe the rapid progress with which the colonies grew.

In the Freshman year at the Mount, World History is given as a required subject for all students. In the overall study they cover History from the time of earliest man to present day.

Sister Mary Ludivine explains the procedure, which is used in the election of a United States president, with Seniors Janice Paul and Jeanne Brodeur.

ART and MUSIC

Art and Music become fascinating subjects once one has been shown how to appreciate them. The Mount works for progress not only in knowledge, but also in culture. Sister Marie Lorraine plans concerts and Mr. Tavares plans art displays for special occasions.

The Music class, under the supervision of Sister Marie Lorraine, is comprised of students from each of the grades.

In the course of gaining a deeper appreciation of music the girls listen to various types.

Mr. Tavares points out some of the differences in the portraits done by his Art class.

One of the Art classes appears to be enjoying its project of modeling figures from furnace cement.

Sister Mary Mercy, Mount Librarian, is always ready to help in securing any reference material needed. In the library the girls can find an excellent supply of information and literature.

LIBRARY

A storehouse of knowledge, a center of learning, a place of discovery . . . this is the Mount Library . . . and Sister Mary Mercy or Miss Sullivan are always there to help the students.

The Webster's Dictionary stand is a much frequented spot, especially at the end of the week, before vocabulary tests. Claire Delisle and Geraldine Rapoza look up words which interest them.

The quiet atmosphere of the library lends the proper setting to a place of study. The library is open for use during all the study periods.

Each year Juniors receive their class rings at a ceremony before the student body. Father McCarrick, our school chaplain, blesses the rings and explains the significance of the ring.

THE RING — our symbol of progressing in responsibility

The Senior sodalists under the direction of Sister Mary Albertus number approximately forty-five girls.

Sodality is not merely another extra-curricular activity for students. It is an organization in which girls look to the Blessed Virgin Mary as their ideal. Before making their act of consecration the girls learn about the works of Our Lady and the duties to be performed by a sodalist.

Before their final acceptance into sodality girls go through a probationary period. Sister Mary Chabanel is moderator of this group.

The large number of sodalists necessitated for a Junior sodality to be formed. The two groups work together on main apostolates. Sister Mary Ludivine is the moderator of this Junior sodality.

SODALITY

Memories mount . . . happy memories as we recall the evening of our Junior Prom. Our theme, "Under Paris Skies," set the tone for that joyful occasion. The walls of the gym were covered with Parisian murals painted by members of our class and the foyer was converted into a little French café.

Members of the Junior class, our present Seniors, Nancy Gregorio, Barbara Souza, Christine Luz, Kathleen Travassos and their escorts pause for a moment in the shade of the gay awning just before going in to enjoy the atmosphere of the French Café at the Junior Prom.

For just a few moments all have abandoned their elegant manners to join in a breathless whirl of color and laughter. The prom is the highlight of the social events of the Junior year.

The magic of the soft music and the enjoyment of Junior Prom night are reflected in the eyes of Nancy McKnight and her escort, Marc Thiboutot.

Linda Miranda of the Mercycrest photography staff and Sharyn Poirier, Mercycrest Business Manager and their escorts chat with Mr. Ernest Torchia, our photographer for the Junior Prom.

Marilee Janick and her escort Timothy Perry stop dancing only long enough to re-arrange a centerpiece of roses, for tonight everything must be just right.

Mount's own folk singing group provides the entertainment at a student government pep rally. Louise Auclair and Anne Brownell play guitar, while Pat Gunning accompanies them on the bass fiddle.

The Student Council is an organization set up to institute and preserve the laws of the school. The Student Government representatives are elected by their classmates and they present any ideas brought to them by the students at their weekly meetings. The student council also sponsors many social activities.

Leading Forward

The annual mother-daughter Communion breakfast is sponsored by the Student Government. The girls and their mothers attend Mass in the School auditorium. After Mass a breakfast is served in the cafeteria.

Nancy Curran, Carol Bednarz, Anne Brownell, Linda Mello, and Susan Jenkinson participate in a practice debate. The club is an active member of the Narragansett Debate League.

Sister Mary Carmelita explains a point to Maureen Austin and Linda Mello. This year's topic was "resolved: that nuclear weapons should be controlled by an international organization."

Nancy Curran practice speaks at the podium while other members of the debating society gather information in the reference room. The library is a great aid to the girls because new evidence is always needed to win a debate.

becoming articulate
citizens

If you appreciate a challenge, then the debating society is for you. This extracurricular activity offers many exciting opportunities to meet new friends and discuss stimulating ideas. The debaters find the club very rewarding because they gain a greater knowledge of world and domestic problems.

MODERN LANGUAGE CLUBS

Officers of the Friday French Club meetings are Secretary, Vivian Prevost; President, Monique Demers; and Treasurer, Rachael Raymond. Sister Mary Adele, Club Moderator, shows the girls many interesting French slides and movies.

Mount's language clubs stress an appreciation of the culture of the people whose languages are being studied. Sister Mary Adele and Sister Mary Denisita are the Moderators of the Modern Language Clubs and Sister Mary Rose is the Moderator of the Latin Club.

Sister Mary Denisita is Moderator of the Spanish Club. All students studying the language are eligible to join in the Club's various activities—from playing Spanish games to visiting nearby museums.

To accommodate all the girls joining the French Club, two separate meetings are held. Officers of the Thursday afternoon club are: Marie Morgan, President; Paulette Dutilly, Secretary; and Carolyn Finnel, Treasurer.

Here are our girls in red and white, Mount's famous Cheerleaders. Always ready to lead our team to victory are Vivian Prevost, Joan White, Diane Allaire, Nancy Sayward, Cynthia Bishop, Carole Laroche, Marjorie Lowney and Gail Kerrigan. Mount girls will always remember the sparkling vitality of the cheerleaders as they aroused Mount spirit with their cheers at each basketball game.

The '64-'65 Sports year, with Sister Mary Julian as Moderator, has been indeed a successful one. The basketball team won almost every game of the season, and the girls who took part in cheerleading, volley ball and bowling did excellent work, too.

Waiting for the rebound, Nancy Lord, Janice Gagne, Sharon Poirier, Margaret Galford, Anne Sullivan, and Betty Misek watch with apprehension as Ginny Bailey tries for a foul shot during a scrimmage. After long hours of practice, Mount's basketball team, coached by Sister Mary Julian, has managed to win a high place among neighboring High Schools competing in the Narragansett League.

... progressing
through teamwork

The Volley Ball team each year works diligently, practicing for their big games. Nancy Ferris and Linda Waite watch Kathleen Fitzgerald as she demonstrates the proper position for serving the volley ball. The team is coached by Sister Mary Julian.

Sister Mary Consilii speaks with Mr. Quaker, a representative of the Quaker Oats Company and a symbol of American Tradition. He addressed the student body on the intrinsic evils of Communism and America's practical defenses against it.

The tenets for good citizenship, an understanding of the people of other nations, current events and an appreciation of our past heritage . . . are all subjects of interest to the History Club. Sister Mary Consilii, our History Club Moderator, plans a very interesting schedule.

Growth in Citizenship

Sister Mary Consilii acts as Moderator of the History Club. As one of their principal activities, the girls attended a mock United Nations session at Salve Regina College. The meeting proved to be very interesting and informative.

Members of the History Club use the library facilities in compiling data for the discussions which form a part of their meetings.

Mary Leary proudly displays the charter which certifies our new branch of the Future Scientists of America. The Mount received the certificate from the National Science Teachers Association.

The Science Club is made up of a small but dedicated group of girls who devote themselves to the principles of scientific investigation and the growing influence of science in the world today. Early in the year they began work on their projects for the annual science fair and always have something worth while to contribute.

Progress through Science

Mount's Science Club, under the direction of Sister Mary Chabanel, is made of active and enthusiastic members. Each year members enter the Science Fair with projects that are a credit to their teachers, who are Sister Mary Albertus, Sister Mary Chabanel, Miss Morin and Mr. Tavares.

Junior Science Club officers: Elsie Pelton, Patricia Selleck, Catherine Flanagan, and Nancy Picard check reference material while planning the week's meeting.

Sandra Gifford and her escort admire the Christmas decorations at the annual semi-formal at Stevenson's Restaurant. Freshmen through Seniors have an opportunity to attend this dance each year.

Waltzing Onward . . .

A buffet served to all by Stevenson's is a welcome break during an intermission at the Semi-formal dance. Everyone had a good appetite on this cold December evening!

Enjoying the melodies of Buddy Reis and his orchestra are Nancy Souza and her escort Tommy Souza. The semi-formal this year was a combined event for all the girls of the School who wished to help support the 1965 Mercycrest.

Two of Mount's most popular dances are the Christmas semiformal sponsored by the yearbook staff . . . and the Father-Daughter dance at which every girl is proud to appear with her Dad.

I

The annual Father-Daughter dance, held in our school gym, was highlighted by Mr. Arthur Parquette's orchestra. Gail Kerrigan and her father certainly take advantage of the lively music being played by the orchestra.

This father is twice as lucky! Mr. Rodrigues appears to have no problem dancing with his two daughters, Janice and Linda.

DRAMATICS

James Gibney as the steward and Rosemary Cullen as Emily Kimbrough are well dressed for land or sea. Rosemary of the class of '64 is now studying Dramatics at Catholic University.

The 1964-65 Dramatic Season included The Sound of Music and Babes in Toyland — both musicals. The final selection of 1964 was Our Hearts Were Young and Gay. The Christmas entertainment was entitled Our Lady in the Market Place. Sister Mary Mercy is Director of the Dramatic Club.

Cornelia played by Jacqueline Letendre is in no condition to accept the present of a safety pocket. Mother, Madeline Plourde, insists and Father, Ronald St. Orge sympathizes. Emily as usual tries to help. The only thing missing is the frolicking audience whose hearts by this time were also young and gay.

The Sound of Music was the most ambitious production the Mount has attempted in its 16 years history. The combined efforts of the Glee Club, boys from visiting schools and the Trapp family children played by elementary school students, and especially the hard but rewarded efforts of Sister Mary Mercy and Sister Marie Lorriane made this production a memorable success.

"There's No Way to Stop It" is the joint opinion of the Baron, Paul Lessard, the "girl who lost," Madeline Plourde, and Uncle Rudy, Jimmie Gibney.

Mother Abbess, Eleanor Thurston, advises Marie, Mary Sayward to return to the Von Trapps.

The appreciation of fine music is an important part of our progress in culture. Here at the Mount, progress in the knowledge of fine music is developed through our Orchestra.

Watching Patricia Gunning tune up her bass viol, Cleo, for one of her appearances in Mount's hootenanny group always is a happy sight at the Mount.

To play music is a gift as well as a talent from God and at the Mount, this gift was given to the Orchestra groups of 1964-65. Under the direction of Mr. Paquette, the girls give many wonderful performances at such functions as the Christmas Cantata, the exchange concert with St. Xavier's of Providence and, of course, Graduation.

ORCHESTRA and GLEE CLUB

The Glee Club for the year 1964-65, under the direction of Sister Marie Lorraine, makes one of its many appearances as an entire body. The members give color and harmony to many of our school activities. Each year the Glee Club presents its annual operetta; this year it was Babes In Toyland.

Everyone remembers the Calendar Party! Especially the wonderful performance of Marilee and Sharon Janick, Gilda Monge, and Betty Ann Picard, who danced to the music played by Natalie Lebre.

Brr! The weather may have been cold, but in the faces of these Glee Club members there is that Christmas warmth. The Glee Club sang carols at Christmas time in the downtown area.

The Glee Club performs many charitable acts throughout the year. During the Christmas season it brings its love and joy in song to the Cancer Home and the General Hospital.

Are these smiles of the Glee Club and Orchestra officers for the photographers or for the La Salle boys who are awaiting supper in the cafeteria after the Joint Concert?

MERCYCREST

Literary Editor: Jeanne Brodeur. Literary Staff: Jeanne Brodeur, Paulette Thibault, Linda Mello, Joyce Greenwood, Mary Kristen Lima. Business Staff: Sharyn Poirier—Business Manager; Nancy C. The Mount Liturgical Choir was the special feature of the day. This choir sings at all the holy week services at the Cathedral. Sister Marie Lorraine is the Director.

LITURGY DAY

Linda Miranda admires the Liturgical bulletin board Sister Mary Benita's Religion class decorated. The Ark and Dove symbols were done by Joyce McCarrher and Carolyn Perry.

Our Liturgy Day was a memorial to President Kennedy. After participating in the Mass for the repose of his soul, Mary Hoss and Martha Wheatley pause to admire his picture.

Father James Murphy gave an excellent background on the History of the Liturgy. His talk was followed by one by Father Richard Demers.

Congratulations to our

and a 'thank you' to two of our former teachers

Sister Mary Donalda taught Religion, Biology and Nurse's Math, and was Moderator of the Science Club. Sister now teaches at Our Lady of Cincinnati College in Cincinnati.

Sister Mary Flora taught Religion, English, German and Latin, and was Moderator for the Mercian and Journalism Club. Sister now teaches at Saint Xavier Academy in Providence.

PROGRESS ENRICHES THE WORLD WE LIVE IN

By working for a better understanding of people of other cultures and religious beliefs the Ecumenical Council has brought about a strong desire among the members of the Church and the people of the world for "peace through understanding." Mount students, as members of the Church, strive for progress in spirituality, knowledge, culture and charity in order to go forth into the world and show that "the greatest of these is charity."
